

The Heroic Escapades of Whiz Macgael

written and created by U McRory with illustrations by C Hamill

Join Whiz Macgael, the friendly super dog, on three heroic escapades: barking bravely when the farm shed ignites, heroically helping rescue a child from a lake and courageously receiving treatment from a vet.

About the author

U McRory makes her debut with Whiz Macgael. This book portrays some of her many interests: dogs, languages, life-saving, nature and photography. She lives in Co. Tyrone.

Interest Level: Age 7+

Genre: Children's fiction animal story

64 pages Dimensions: 254 x 203mm

Colour photographs and illustrations

Hardback: ISBN 9780955664915

Cost: £10 + postage and packaging.

Books to be non-returnable for hygiene reasons. Accessible with clear print in Andika New Basic 14 point.

Publisher: Grá Ultana Ltd

For further information on this high-quality refreshing and inspiring book visit:

whizmacgael.ie

Book Highlights

Written in the English language (Britain and Ireland), the book includes three captivating stories, vivid photographs, beautiful illustrations as well as the heroic antics of Whiz Macgael which cleverly introduce dog care, fire and water safety. Additionally, early language learning is included by translating selected words into two languages (French and Irish).

Finally, there is an Extras section with a language word summary.

A book sample is available in a Book2Look Biblet on the website or via the QR code.

